The Firebird Association

August 31, 2015

The Firebirds to Invade Fredericksburg Texas.

On April 25th, 2016 the Firebirds will invade Fredericksburg Texas for the first time. The reunion will be held at the Fredericksburg Inn & Suites, 201 South Washington (aka US Hwy 87 to San Antonio), Fredericksburg, TX 78624.

Fredericksburg was chosen due to its central location, the tourist attractions, and the co-operation of the hotel in providing a hospitality room and allowing us to bring our own refreshments.

The reunion will be Monday April 25th 2016 (Arrival) to Thursday April 28th 2016 (departure). The reunion planning committee has negotiated a reduce room rate for the Firebird reunion. These rates are good for early arrivals, and late departures.

We will once again have the “Early bird” drawing. On March 2nd 2016 we will draw three names from the people that have registered before March 1st 2016.

Each name drawn will receive one nights comp on their hotel room.

J.C. Arrington

From the President:

All Firebirds are being “Recalled”. It is getting close to the 2016 Firebird Reunion. This time we will be meeting in Fredericksburg, Texas. The dates are April 25th, 26th, and 27th 2016. So call all of the Firebirds that you know and tell them to call all of the ones that they know. I was at the planning meeting and I know you will have a great time. Y’all come.

Welcome To Fredericksburg

This is a special invitation to all Firebird Association members to attend the 2016 reunion. Since we last met in Biloxi, Mississippi in 2014, a lot of Firebirds have “Flown West” (Take a look at the “Taps” page). It does not matter if you are in the 517th, the 109th, or were in the 61st, 17th or VXE-6. We are all comrades. We share the same background. Officer or enlisted, Flight crew, or support, we are comrades.

Please come to Fredericksburg, Texas in April 2016. Lets have a drink, share a meal, and tell some stories, and remember our mates together. Let us make this Firebird reunion the best one ever held.

The Firebird Association

In 1982, former members of the 17th TCS and 17th TAS officially organized the Firebird Association.

The stated purpose of the Association is to commemorate the aviation history of the 17th Troop Carrier Squadron and the 17th Tactical Airlift Squadron of the United States Air Force, its predecessor and mission-successor organizations, and of all military units who have flown ski-equipped versions of the C-130 aircraft within any of the Armed Forces of the United States of America. And, provide social and recreational activities for, and to maintain fraternal contacts between, its members.

Eligibility for membership is open to any and all persons who served on active duty in the United States Air Force with the 17th Troop Carrier Squadron and/or the 17th Tactical Airlift Squadron; any and all persons who served with any of the predecessor or mission-successor organizations of the 17th Troop Carrier Squadron and/or the 17th Tactical Airlift Squadron, including but not limited to the 61st Troop

Carrier Squadron, the 109th Tactical Airlift Group/Wing, or the 517th Airlift Squadron; any and all persons who served with United States Navy Antarctic Development Squadron Six (VXE-6); Any and all persons who, while on active or active-reserve duty with the United States Air Force or the United States Navy, have ever flown as a crew member on a ski-equipped model of the C-130 aircraft; Any and all persons who have supported the missions of the ski-equipped C-130 aircraft flown by any active duty, reserve or National Guard unit of the Armed Forces of the United States, such as but not limited to, operational control, aircraft maintenance, aerial port, combat control team and industry technical representative; The spouses, widows, widowers and children of any of the above; and Upon nomination for membership by any active Firebird and acceptance by a majority vote of the Board of Directors, any other person, not otherwise qualified, who has an interest in this association and supports the purposes for which it is organized.

To all DFAS Retiree Pay Recipients:

When you filled out the forms to begin receiving your military retirement pay, did you intend to designate a beneficiary to receive entitlements after your death? If your answer is yes, please read the following statement.

There is a widow among the Firebird family who was just slammed with the startling news that her retired-deceased husband never completed the necessary forms naming his beneficiary. She has given permission to use her name, but I have chosen to not do so. Her husband had always told her not to worry that she was taken care of if he died. Apparently he thought that filing proof of marriage was sufficient. It is not!

She was given some very uninformed advise and has been forwarded from department to department at the VA (Veterans Administration), has taken off work to make fruitless appointments, filled out many forms, has been required to use most of her savings to pay his final expenses and still did not have any results or answers. She is not the only widow that has been blindsided by this invisible wall of misinformation. Seeking support, she phoned a friend who had recently gone through much the same process and it is a process. The friend advised her to call DEERS and DFAS. The information did not come from the VA, Social Security, or even the funeral director but from another widow who did know the process.

A five minute call to DEERS and she had the devastating news that the husband had never completed the necessary forms to make her his beneficiary. This is not a made up story or a figment of imagination, but cold hard fact. She is legally and rightfully entitled to receive a portion of his retired military pay but will never get a bit of it because of a simple act of omission.

So military retirees, play it safe, check your pay record to be sure that it is complete.

If you have a MyPay Account, open and print both sides of your pay record statement. At the bottom of the front side the information will show you the name and birthdate of your designated beneficiary and if you applied for benefits. You will also be informed as to how much the current annuity is proposed to be. Go to the back side of the form and you will be shown who you selected for a back up recipient.

If you do not have a MyPay Account, then you should call DEERS or DFAS and speak with a customer care representative.

DEERS-Defense Enrollment Eligibility Reporting System

DFAS-Defense Finance and Accounting Service

1-800-321-1080 (Mon– Fri. 8:00 am– 5:00 pm (Eastern Time))

Be advised you will need your full name, social security number and possibly will be asked for other personal information to validate your identity. Your information must agree with the information in your permanent record.

If you did not make these provisions, you may be too late, but don't wait. Call and find out.

Also, be advised that it may take several weeks to get through this process because these offices receive about 5000 requests each day.

Don't let this happen to your loved one!

Ms. Betty Huff has put together a step by step guide folder for this process. If you would like a copy contact Betty Huff at: e-mail <b.huff@att.net> Betty Huff will have copies of the guide at the reunion.
